MEDIA RELEASE

Officer Injured, Firearm and Ammunition Seized in St Ann's

A police officer was injured and a loaded firearm seized in St Anns yesterday.

Officers of the Joint Operations Task Force (J.O.T.F.) were conducting a mobile patrol in the St. Ann's area when they received intelligence information relative to a man armed with firearms on Fondes Ammendes Road, St. Anns.

Upon arrival, a group of men was observed fleeing toward a forested area. The officers gave chase, and several loud explosions were heard. The party returned fire.

It was later discovered that an officer was shot. He was conveyed to a medical facility to seek medical attention.

A loaded shotgun was discovered at the scene. The men were able to escape.

ASP. Narine is conducting investigations.
