MEDIA RELEASE

Firearms, Ammunition and Alcohol Seized in Exercises

A quantity of alcohol was seized from a business place and two firearms and quantities of ammunition discovered by officers during ongoing anti-crime exercises in the Northern and South Western Divisions yesterday.

An exercise was conducted in the Arima district between 3:30 pm and 6:30 pm, on Wednesday 4th December, 2024, during which officers of the Arima Intelligence and Operations Team proceeded to a shop located at Blanchisseuse Road.

There they observed persons purchasing alcohol from a chiller.

The owner of the establishment was questioned and checks revealed that he did not have a licence for the sale of alcohol on the premises.

A quantity of alcohol was subsequently seized.

Meanwhile, in the La Brea district, officers investigating a report of Robbery with Aggravation on Wednesday 4th December, 2024, proceeded to Sobo Village, where they found the blue Nissan Note motor vehicle which was allegedly involved in the incident.

A search of a vacant structure located nearby resulted in officers finding two pistols loaded with magazines and a total of 10 rounds of ammunition.

Investigations are ongoing into the two above matters.
