MEDIA RELEASE

$396k Worth of Cannabis Seized in Tobago, 2 Arrested

The Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) has achieved another meaningful breakthrough in addressing crime in Tobago, seizing $396,000, worth of cannabis and apprehending two key suspects.

According to police reports, on Wednesday 11th December, 2024, officers acting on intelligence, observed suspicious activity involving two men and a black Nissan Almera vehicle along the coastal front at Lighthouse Road, Crown Point. Surveillance revealed one suspect retrieving a large black plastic bag from the beach and placing it in the vehicle. The officers maintained surveillance as the vehicle travelled to Bay Street, Carnbee, where it was intercepted and a search was conducted.

The search uncovered 18 packages of cannabis concealed in a black plastic bag inside the vehicle, which when weighed amounted to 9.9 kilograms. Both suspects, aged 34, from Carnbee were taken into custody.

The operation was strategically directed by ACP Subero, co-ordinated by Snr Supt Elie and Supt Joseph, spearheaded by A.S.P. (Ag) Dirk John, Insp Fraser-Ramsey, supervised by Sergeant (Ag) McMillan, Cpl Lewis and performed by police officers attached to Crown Point Police Station, Tobago Gang Intelligence Unit and office of the A.C.P.

Investigations are ongoing.
