MEDIA RELEASE

San Souci Man, 21, Charged for Tobago Jewellery Store Robbery

A 21-year-old man from San Souci Bay, Trinidad has been apprehended and charged in connection with the armed robbery at a jewellery store located at Low Lands Mall, Tobago.

On Monday, November 11, 2024, KINO CALDERO, appeared before Master De Silva, charged with Robbery with Aggravation. He was granted bail in the sum of $250,000, with surety or a cash alternative of $25,000. Additionally, the court imposed a nightly curfew on Caldero, restricting his movements from 6 pm to 6 am.

According to police reports, the incident occurred on August 14, 2024, when two men, disguised in construction attire and armed with firearms, entered the store and carried out the robbery.

Officers from the Tobago Division, Criminal Investigations Department (CID), led by WPC Cunningham, conducted a meticulous investigation into the incident, with significant support from officers at the La Horquetta Police Station in Trinidad. These efforts led to the arrest of the accused.

The apprehension of the second suspect allegedly involved in this incident remains a high priority. Anyone with further information related to this case is encouraged to contact the Tobago Division CID or their nearest police station.
