Man Arrested, Ammunition, Camouflage, Cannabis Seized During Anti-Crime Exercises

One man was arrested, ammunition, camouflage, cannabis among items seized during anti-crime operations in Port of Spain Division.

Officers of the Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF) conducted a crime eradication exercise in the Port-of-Spain Division, continuing their relentless fight against crime.

A search of a Clifton Street, Port-of-Spain home resulted in the seizure of Camouflage clothing (green jersey, digital camouflage fisher cap). The suspect was arrested for prohibited items under the Customs Act.

Also during a search of the emergency fire hose box at Building 1, PC St Louis found:

- 5 rounds of 9mm ammunition
- 1 extended magazine
- 189g of Cannabis
- 1 rifle scope

The officers successfully gathered intelligence which resulted in the seizure of additional prohibited items.

The operations were conducted by the Joint Operations Task Force headed by ACP Collis Hazel, Snr Supt Dave Spence and included members of the IATF, GEB, K9 AND Air Support Unit.
