MEDIA RELEASE

Trainee Granted Bail of $65000 for Entering Dwelling House at Night to Commit Arrestable Offence

A 24-year-old trainee was granted bail with a surety in the sum of $65000.00 with a cash alternative of $10,000 when he appeared before a Master to answer to a charge of Entering a Dwelling House by Night to Commit an Arrestable Offence.

The accused Lee Jay Knight is to report to the Moruga Police Station once per week, with a curfew of 11 pm to 6 am and also to stay away from the virtual complainant. He is scheduled to reappear at the Princes Town Magistrates' Court on November 22nd, 2024.

According to police reports, around 7:25 am on Saturday 23rd March, 2024, the victim was at a friend's house when the accused was discovered laying naked in her bed asleep. She enquired of him how he came into the house and his reason for being there and he could not give a satisfactory account.

A report was made to the Moruga Police Station and Cpl Cedeno and PC Smith visited the scene and enquiries were launched into the matter. The accused was arrested on Friday 18th October, 2024.
