MEDIA RELEASE

Two Arrested, Ammunition Seized in Central Division

Central Division officers arrested two suspects and seized a quantity of ammunition on Sunday, 23rd February 2025.

The intelligence led strategic operation took officers to a home at River Branch Road, Kelly Village, Caroni. There they conducted a strategic search and found and seized the following items: -

- One extended 9mm magazine loaded with twenty-one (21) rounds of hollow point 9mm ammunition
- One empty 9mm magazine
- Three boxes containing one hundred sixteen (116) rounds of 9mm ammunition
- One box containing thirty-one (31) rounds of 5.56 ammunition
- Seven AR15 rifle disconnectors
- Five AR15 hammers with springs
- Three AR15 trigger mechanisms with springs
- Six trigger pins
- One AR15 stabilizer
- One green plate

As a result of the operation, two suspects were arrested and are currently assisting officers with further investigations. The exercise was conducted by officers of the Special Operations Unit, led by ACP Richard Smith and Snr Supt Roger Alexander, and supervised by Ag. ASP St. Clair and Sgt Baptiste, and supported by the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service K-9 Unit and members of the National Security Special Operations Group (NSSOG)
